Sheriff Regalado
Tulsa County Sheriff's Office
303 W 1st St
Tulsa, OK 74103

Sheriff Regalado,

This data analysis extends from January 1st through December 31st of 2018. I am pleased to report there were a total of 47 investigated events. In comparison to 2017 there were 48 reports. Also in 2018, there were 5 substantiated allegations (up 1), 18 unsubstantiated allegations (down 1), and 24 unfounded allegations (down 2).

There appear to be no significant problem areas. Adaptations to the PREA system are ongoing. The inmate's names were redacted to protect the safety and security of the inmates, other inmates, and the security of the facility as a whole.

Corrective action was taken on an ongoing basis. The review teams and quarterly operations meetings provided valuable information on process system changes, training, and improvement of overall systems. The PREA system is progressing. In 2018 we completed our 2017 PREA audit and all recommendations were implemented. We also instituted a new sexual victim/predator screening and upgraded the kiosk reporting system. In 2019 we will strive to continue improved reporting, continue training, and improve the forms related to data tracking and reporting.

Respectively,

Dr. Josh R Turley
Risk Management
PREA Coordinator

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was passed in 2003 with unanimous support from both parties in Congress. The purpose of the Act was to “provide for the analysis of the incidence and effects of prison rape in Federal, State and Local institutions and to provide information, resources, recommendations and funding to protect individuals from prison rape.” This law applies to all public and private institutions that house adult or juvenile offenders.

The Tulsa County Sheriff’s Office is committed to a zero-tolerance standard towards all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment between employees, volunteers or contractors and offenders as well as offender upon offender sexual abuse or harassment.

How to report incidents of sexual assault or sexual abuse:

TCSO accepts and investigates reports regarding allegations or knowledge of sexual abuse of offenders from third parties including family, friends, clergy, vendors, contractors, or any other person having knowledge of an incident.
